

CKHOA Guidelines

Forum Etiquette

Neighbors are expected to treat each other with respect, and be courteous of each other's opinions and advice, regardless of his or her relative experience.

Inappropriate Language - Profanity is not permitted in pictures or posts on the forums and will earn a warning if posted.

Personal Attacks - Personal attacks are defined as issuing a single or repeated personal attack or attacks aimed at another member, rather than at their opinions or ideas. Criticizing a member's post or board member's actions is not considered a personal attack, but using terms that are derogatory, or designed to discredit a member is not permitted.

Trolling - Trolling can be defined as when a member posts inflammatory, extraneous, or off-topic messages with the primary intent or consequence of provoking other users into an emotional response or of otherwise disrupting normal on-topic discussion.

Personal Information - Do not post personal information (i.e. addresses, phone numbers, passwords, personal identification numbers, and images) or any other information considered private without the express permission of the individual. This is to protect both the poster and the person whose information is revealed.

Neighborhood Alerts - Alerts are for emergencies and should only used when there is a good cause. The board president may sent urgent announcements if deemed appropriate by the webmaster.

Additional forum etiquette rules effective 8/16/2019: First violation of forum etiquette in the opinion of the webmaster the violator will be deleted for one month and will need to re-register. Second violation of forum etiquette in the opinion of the webmaster the violator will be deleted for six months and will need to re-register. Third violation of forum etiquette in the opinion of the webmaster the violator will be deleted for life. Member has the right to appeal the webmasters decision at the next scheduled board meeting.